

CLASS XI Subject: Political Science

- 1) Read one national newspaper (English) from May 13 to 15, 2018 & collect the following information on Karnataka assembly elections.
  - a. No. Of political parties which contested the elections
  - b. Name of the political parties with at least two leaders
  - c. Top three parties after the results
  - d. Party that formed the govt. & the CM
  - e. Your observations on the way elections were conducted
  - f. Should there be some changes in the system of elections
- 2) Complete the following details about Indian constitution
  - a. It was completed on
  - b. It was adopted on
  - c. Total articles
  - d. Total amendments done
  - e. Latest amendment
- 3) Answer the following questions & write the answers in political science register
  - a. Define the given terms: constitution, amendment, secularism, universal adult suffrage.
  - b. List various functions performed by democratic constitution.
  - c. How does a constitution maintain coordination among different social groups?
  - d. Why is it necessary to put restrictions on the government also?
  - e. Why were objective resolution adopted?
  - f. Mention various features of Cabinet Mission.
  - g. Why amendments are required to a constitution?
  - h. List various types of amendments followed in India.
  - i. How many types of categories of amendments can be found in India? Give examples.
  - j. Write short notes on
    - i. 42 amendment
    - ii. keshavnand bharti case